PREFACE

"Honor thy father and thy mother."

This law, written in the decalogue, is written also in the hearts of men, and awakens in them a desire to know the history and character of their forefathers. Death is closing the lips of the aged, one after another, and the traditions of their fathers are fading away, then it seems a fitting thing that into the minds of the rising generation should be grafted by written as well as traditional testimony a desire to know the history of a worthy ancestry. In this genealogical sketch of the Tiffany family I have confined my researches to that branch whose progenitor was Ephraim, son of Humphrey Tiffany, 1st, and whose emigration was from New Shoreham, R. I., to Lyme, Conn. From that town his grandson, Consider, moved to Hartland, Conn., and became the ancestor of a numerous posterity, reaching the tenth generation. It has been my purpose to obtain verified records and have refused to consider any that were not such. From all members of the family I have ever received unfailing courtesy and encouraging interest in the success of my work. To name one would be to name all. Yet I crave permission to mention the name of David P. Wilder of Bristol Center, N. Y., who married Hannah C. Tiffany, September 15, 1846; but for the persistent interest this old gentleman has manifested in my work and the valuable records and data he has forwarded to me (even with a hand so shaky as to make it a painful task to write), I fear I should long ago have given up the task of compiling this record as hopeless. Through correspondence I have come in touch with many pleasant friendships, and I shall still retain most pleasing memories of you all, though now I lay aside my pen and say farewell.

Yours sincerely,

ELLA F. WRIGHT.

INTRODUCTION

Squire Humphrey is the earliest Tiffany mentioned in Colonial history, and he is undoubtedly the ancestor of the majority of Tiffanys in America. The following notes copied from reliable records seem to fix the date when he became a citizen of the town of Rehoboth, Mass. (which town was incorporated in 1645, and contained the present towns of Seekonk, Rehoboth, Attleboro, parts of Swansea, Mass., and Pawtucket, R. I.): The birth of a daughter, Sarah, July 6, 1683; his death by lightning; the administration of his estate by wife Elizabeth; the death of his son, Hezekiah, the same year by drowning; ending with a record from the vital records of Rehoboth, which affirm his heirs in 1689 to be proprietors not inhabitants of property in Rehoboth, Mass.

EXPLANATION

The following abbreviations are used in this work :

b.—born.	dau.—daughter
d.—died	wid.—widow
m.—married	bach.—bachelor.
add.—address.	u. m.—unmarried

This work is in two parts. Part first comprises a record of the male line of Ephraim, son of Humphrey Tiffany, the original settler in America, and his descendants bearing the Tiffany name. Part second is a record of the descent of the married female Tiffanys brought down to the present day. The numerals at the left of the names designate the seniority of the children in the rotation of birth, and the numerals enclosed in parenthesis name the generation. Against the daughter's name in part first is given the name of her husband, and by referring to index her record of descendants can readily be found. Part first also contains descent through Humphrey (1), Thomas (2), Nathaniel (3), Nathaniel (4), Nahaniel (5), Levi (6), Calvin (7), Roland (8).

NOTES ON HUMPHREY TIFFANY

"Records of Ancient Rehoboth. History of New Plymouth, by Baylis, Vol. 1, page 209. Jan. 22, 1663, Humphrey Tiffany permitted to be a sojourner and to buy and hire."

"The town of Rehoboth, Mass., was incorporated 1645 and contained the towns of Seekonk, Rehoboth, Attleboro, Swansea, Mass., and Pawtucket, R. I."

"Att the General Court holden att Plymouth the first day of March, Anno Dom, 1663," Humphrey Tiffany made a complaint against an Indian for abuse received."

"Humphrey Tiffany, Rehoboth, 1663, by wife Elizabeth had Sarah born July 6, 1683, and was an inhabitant of Dover for some time but killed July 15, 1685, on the journey between Swansey and Boston by a stroke of lightning."—Savage.

From Mass. Historical Society, Vol. 14, page 125. "July 15, 1685, Humphrey Tiffany and Frances Low travelling betwix Swansea and Boston were slain with lightning."

Plymouth Colony Records, Vol. 6, page 175. "Att a General Court of his Maj'tie holden att Plymouth, Oct. 27, 1685, administration is granted by this court to Elizabeth, the relict of Humphrey Tiffany deceased, on all the goods and chattles of sd. Tiffeney she bringing in a true inventory there of and giving bond with two sufficient sureties for her administring according to law. Major John Walley is ordered by the Court to give ye oath to the inventory of sd. Tiffeney and to deliver her the letter of administration granted by the Court, he having given a bond as afore sd."

"Hezeriah, the son of Humphrey Tiffinee and of Elizabeth his wife, was drowned in Swansea River on the 4th of December near night, anno 1685." From town records of Swansea, Mass., furnished by town clerk Henry O. Wood.

From the Vital Records of Rehoboth, page 917, Humphrey Tiffany's heirs are quoted as proprietors not inhabitants, Feb. 7, 1689, of property in Rehoboth.

The emigration of the sons of Humphrey Tiffany was for a time limited to short distances. We hear of James at Attleboro, Mass., 1693; Thomas, his brother, first at Bristol, then at Ashford; Ebenezer, another brother, at Barrington, R. I.; Consider and Ephraim seem to have found their way to the town of New Shoreham, which town was admitted to the Colony as Block Island, May 4, 1664. Here—per New Shoreham records furnished by town clerk of New Shoreham—Consider Tiffany and Abigail Niles were married and had children. Here also his brother, Ephraim (of whose descendants this history deals), and wife, Leshia, had issue.

GENERATION SECOND.

Descent: Humphrey (1), Ephraim (2).

Ephraim (2), son of Humphrey (1), and Elizabeth Tiffany m. Leshia—and had issue, b. in New Shoreham, Block Island. 1. Samuel (3), b. Apr. 7, 1701. 2. Consider (3), b. Apr. 28, 1703. 3. Humphrey (3), b. Feb. 7, 1706. Ephraim (2) and his brother, Consider (2), bought a large tract of land in Lyme, Conn., June 11, 1701. Consider (2) moved to Lyme and made a number of transfers of real estate from time to time. Ephraim did not settle in Lyme till late in 1706 or the first of 1707, judging from an agreement between him and his partners, Ball and Banning. For a long time I find no transfers in his name but he was living in Lyme, Conn., in 1724, and died there previous to 1734. Was living in 1732.

Many interesting documents have been preserved of Consider Tiffany (4), as well as traditional testimony. He was a member of the Church of England and had little patience with the dissenting sects.

During the War of Independence, some time in the year 1778, Consider Tiffany was confined to his farm in the town of Hartland, Conn., on account of his outspoken Toryism.

After a confinement of fifteen months, hearing that an effort was being made for his release, he addressed the following letter to the chairman of the committee showing his penitence and sorrow:

Mr. Ensign:—I understand that the committee are about to release me, being ashamed of their depriving me of that liberty they did 15 months ago.

I can answer the pretended committee that I never did anything that I am sorry for, more than that I have done too much in favor of the United States against genuine reason and the dictates of conscience, and the unerring Scriptures, which error I am unfeignedly sorry for. I am, and always was, a sincere friend of America. But if I had the same opinion of the United States as I have of poor Hartland, I should think it my duty to do my utmost to have them subdued. Sir, I suppose there may be two reasons that induce the committee to release me without my asking them: The first, a guilty conscience for abusing me without a cause; the second, to dismiss me so that I can be drafted. But, that be as it may, this I will assure you, and all men, that I never intend to go into the camps, and if I am forced thither, I intend to fight for that side that I think I ought to. I would further tell you that I retain the same principles that I had five years ago. Don't mean to hurt any man, and am contented to remain in my own business and happy in not seeing the face of my implacable enemies.—Therefore please so use your endeavors that I remain happy as I now am, and you will oblige your old friend.

Consider Tiffany.

THE GIANT ELM

Fling out your branches noble tree,
Stretch out your arms so bold and free
And shelter with a protecting grace
The descendants of a goodly race.

'Tis by the grace of God so willed,
The hand that planted thee is stilled,
Yet year by year still stand ye here
An emblem of a name most dear.

Still towering in thy strength sublime,
Thou seem'st untouched by trace of time;
Through winter's blasts neath summer's skies
Still in your years endurance lies.

Gather beneath this grateful shade
And witnesses be of homage paid;
By old, by young, both great and small
To kinship bonds give due reverence all.

ELM TREE PLANTED BY CONSIDER TIFFANY (4) ABOUT 1775, HARTLAND, CONN., SPREAD OF BRANCHES
105 FEET CIRCUMFERENCE OF TRUNK 21 FEET

Like thee, old Elm, may the Tiffanys be,
 Sturdy in strength, upright and free,
 Like thee broadcast spread their branches best
 To north, to south to east and west,
 Till like thy shade ever honored be
 The family name of Tiffany.

Mr. Joel Tiffany entered the law office of William G. Williams in 1831. The following year he went to Ohio, where he resumed the study of law at Medina, and was admitted to the bar in 1834. He later gave up his law practice to devote his time to religious matters. In 186— he went to Albany, N. Y., where he published, through W. C. Little, a work on "Trusts and Trustees." In 1863 he published "Practice Under the New York Code." He also digested the "New York Justices Court of Appeals Code," which was published. In 1866-67 he wrote a work on "Government and Constitutional Law" as applicable to the United States and to the several States. He was appointed by Gov. Fenton reporter to the Court of Appeals. During his three years' term of office he reported twelve volumes of Court of Appeals reports, known as "Tiffany Records." He was a believer in Spiritualism, and one of the earliest exponents of that faith.

the practice of law at Albion, Neb., in 1880, and met with much success in his profession. In November, 1883, he was elected to the same position for a full term of four years, and in 1887 was re-elected for another four-years' term.
